

2014 AICR Research Conference Scholarship Application Submission Guidelines

Conference Scholarship Application Submission (with Poster Abstract)

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: September 5, 2014

Conference Scholarship Award:

A limited number of conference scholarship awards are available. Conference scholarship recipients will be awarded complimentary registration and up to three nights in the conference hotel during the conference event dates. Scholarship awards do not include travel expenses.

Scholarship Eligibility:

1. You must be a full-time doctoral student studying nutrition and/or physical activity and cancer
2. You must be studying at an institution in the United States
3. You must submit a poster abstract through the online poster submission site

▶ There are no exceptions to the above requirements.

Scholarship recipients are required to present a poster at the conference. Scholarship applications submitted without a poster abstract will not be considered. Please refer to the Poster Abstract Submission Guidelines, but note that your deadline for both your poster abstract submission and scholarship application is September 5.

To apply for a scholarship submit a poster abstract through our online abstract submission service and include the following documents:

1. A one-page letter explaining how this conference is relevant to your education and research, and why you want to attend
2. A one-page letter of support from your primary mentor
3. A one-page biosketch or resume
